ABOUT ME

I'm Kareem Saheed, a dedicated and results-driven Web Developer and Computer Science student at Ekiti State University (EKSU). Skilled in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, Node.js, and Express, I build responsive and efficient web applications with clean, modern design. Passionate about technology and continuous learning, I aim to grow as a Full-Stack Developer and create innovative solutions that make an impact.

EXPERIENCE

Ekiti State University (SIWES Program)

Web Developer Intern

June 2025- October 2025

- I developed and maintained multiple responsive web pages using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.
- I built a University Complaint Management System using Node.js, Express.js, EJS, and PostgreSQL.
- I collaborated with a small team to debug, deploy, and document web projects.
- I gained hands-on experience with Git, version control, and frontend-backend integration.

Personal Freelance Projects

Frontend / Full Stack Developer

January 2023 - Present

- I designed and deployed several portfolio and business websites using React.js and Node.js.
- I implemented RESTful APIs and integrated payment and contact forms.
- I practiced responsive and modern UI design using Figma and CSS frameworks.
